Rover - delightful form, design and comfort

Rover is a truly multi-purpose chair, and is built with a simple form and contemporary design. Its moulded flexi-back, made of virgin Polypropylene makes Rover a perfect combination of durability and a high degree of personal comfort.

- Premium Styling that adds dash and verve to spaces
- Range of variants that make Rover truly multi-purpose
- Amazing stackability helps optimise storage space

Rover's range of vibrant colours and pleasing design adds warmth and cheer to breakout zones, waiting rooms and informal spaces.
